

SAA Student Conference Scholarship-Due January 31

The American Academy of Audiology Foundation (AAAF) and the Student Academy of Audiology (SAA) are offering fulltime audiology graduate students funding to support their participation in the 5th annual SAA Student Conference held in conjunction with AudiologyNOW! 2017 in Indianapolis, IN. Selected students will receive a scholarship of up to $40 for SAA Student Conference registration. Students who receive funding are required to provide a post-conference statement (2-3 paragraphs) that details the experience and learning outcomes within 30 days following the conference. A committee will review application materials and award notifications will be made by February 15, 2017.

Eligibility, Guidelines, and Conditions

1. Students must be fulltime audiology graduate students (AuD, PhD, ScD, AuD/PhD) at a U.S. university at the time of the conference.
2. Students are required to notify the committee by March 15, 2017 if they have received funding but are unable to attend the conference.
3. This scholarship does NOT provide registration or reimbursement for AudiologyNOW!, Academy Research Conference, other Academy-related meetings, or for corporate/manufacturer-sponsored meetings.

Applicants are required to submit the following:

1. Completed application (attached).
2. Personal statement that explains why the applicant wishes to attend the conference and how it relates to the applicant's course of study, clinical practice, or future career goals (500 words maximum).
3. Post-conference statement (2-3 paragraphs) that details the experience and learning outcomes within 30 days following the conference.

NOTE: Please read the submission criteria carefully. ONLY send items 1 and 2 requested above; applicants who send unrequested documentation may be disqualified from consideration.
