Activity Name:

Activity Purpose:

The purpose is to teach undergraduate students about audiology, give them opportunities to gain hands-on experience with audiology equipment, and offer a time to interact with AuD students and ask questions.

Activity Description:

Dates:  How Far In Advance Did You Prepare:

Recommended # of Participants:  Activity Location:

Important Contacts or Resources:

The designated SAA member in charge of AuD Squad.

Tips:

Each month we feature a different topic in audiology. Ideas include: tympanograms, pure tone testing, handling a hearing aid, etc. We teach undergraduate students about the topic and give them hands-on experience to try it out. We vary topics month-to-month so people come back every meeting and we advertise when the meetings will be happening during the undergrad Audio Eval class.
