Activity Name:

Activity Purpose:

The purpose of this activity is to collaborate with other audiologists and professionals in Buffalo to raise money for the Dr. Ann Stadelmaier hearing aid fund (see below). This event allows us to raise money for a good cause as well as our student chapter. University at Buffalo's SAA members work extremely hard to make this event successful. This is great for bringing awareness about hearing loss to the community as well as a networking opportunity as many professionals attend the event!

Activity Description:

The University at Buffalo Student Academy of Audiology is active in community service efforts, government relations, and hearing health awareness campaigns. Our chapter is currently partnering with the Dr. Ann Stadelmaier Hearing Aid Fund, founded by Hearing Evaluation Services of Buffalo, in order to raise awareness of hearing healthcare and SAA. Dr. Stadelmaier was a local audiologist and a Kenmore Lion, committed to helping individuals with hearing loss obtain hearing aids regardless of their financial circumstances. Upon her passing in 2006, this fund was created to honor her legacy and to continue to provide affordable hearing aids to those in financial
